Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

July 24, 2022

Genesis 18:20-32; Colossians 2:12-14; Luke 11:1-13
Psalm 138

Dear Families:

Last Sunday's Gospel warned us about the need to strengthen our spiritual life and listen to the word of Jesus, serenely. Today we find the second element of this vigilance: prayer. How to pray? Why pray? These are questions we have all asked. Sometimes we say, "I do not know how to pray".

St. Luke, the evangelist of prayer, sees Jesus as the most prayerful of all...in constant dialogue with the Father. Let us try to discover this connection, through the prayer that we hear in today's Gospel - The Lord's Prayer.

Before praying, we must become aware of who we are and who God is. He is the All, the Absolute in our lives. Sometimes we pray as the client with the shop owner with a list of requests on hand. Instead, we should focus on the feeling of joy at being with God, in the company of our brothers and sisters. He is the Holy One, that which is totally different from man and His other creatures. Jesus has sanctified the name of God because He has revealed his true face to us. So too, we must sanctify the name of God, recognizing Him as who He is: Father, Lord, Life, Love and Salvation.

To pray is to learn to forget oneself, and to surrender ourselves to the universal project of salvation. Thus, prayer requires us to put aside our agendas. Christian prayer is the prayer of the poor.

However, prayer is not just a balm for our hurts - something to turn to only when we have problems or needs. Faith in Christ is a way of living. Many times we turn to prayer only when things go wrong. We take up the Rosary only when nothing else works. But faith is not just a cure-all. Faith is to allow ourselves to be transformed in Christ, in order to pass safely through all the complexities of life: the good and the bad times, sickness, worries, pains, failures and successes. To pray constantly is something that we are taught from childhood. Perseverance in prayer is certainly a gift, but it is also a discipline that we can all practice. God never abandons his people and His mercy is abundant. That is at the core of our faith and so we trust in the power of prayer.

Décimoséptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

24 de julio del 2022

Génesis 18:20-32; Colosenses 2:12-14; Lucas 11:1-13
Salmo 138

Queridas familias:

El domingo pasado el evangelio nos alertaba sobre la necesidad de reforzar nuestra vida espiritual y escuchar serenamente la palabra de Jesús. Hoy encontramos el segundo elemento de esta vigilancia: la oración; ¿Cómo orar? ¿Para qué orar?; estas son preguntas que todos nos hemos hecho. A veces decimos, "no se rezar".

San Lucas es el evangelista de la oración y ve a Jesús como el gran orante, en permanente dialogo con el Padre. Intentemos descubrirlo a través de la oración que escuchamos hoy en el evangelio: El Padre Nuestro.

Antes de rezar debemos tomar conciencia de quienes somos nosotros y quien es Dios. El es el Todo, lo Absoluto en nuestra vida. A veces rezamos como el cliente con el dueño de una tienda, con una lista de peticiones en la mano. En cambio, rezar es sentir la alegría de estar con Dios, palpando su compañía en la calidad de los hermanos. El es el Santo, totalmente distinto del hombre y de las demás criaturas. Jesús ha santificado el nombre de Dios porque nos ha revelado su verdadero rostro. Por eso nosotros debemos santificar el nombre de Dios, reconociendo como lo que es: Padre, Señor, Vida, Amor y Salvación.

Orar es aprender a olvidarse de uno mismo, entregarse al proyecto universal de la salvación. Así, la oración nos obliga a dejar a un lado nuestras agendas. La oración del cristiano es la oración del pobre.

Sin embargo, la oración no es una solución ligera y la fe no es algo a lo que recurrir cuando hay problemas o necesidades. La fe en Cristo es un estilo de vida. Muchas veces acudimos a la oración sólo cuando las cosas van mal. Tomamos el Rosario cuando nada más funciona, pero la fe no es una cura para todo. La fe es permitir que nuestro ser sea transformado en Cristo para poder pasar a salvo por todas las complejidades de la vida: los buenos momentos y los malos, las enfermedades, preocupaciones, dolores, fracasos y éxitos. Orar constantemente es algo que se nos enseña desde pequeños. Perseverancia en la oración es ciertamente un regalo, pero también es una disciplina que todos podemos practicar.

God The difficult part is not in the phrases we use to pray, but rather in the degree of commitment that leads to prayer. It is to be a participant in His plans for our lives; to place ourselves at His disposition.

In conclusion, better than the many "our fathers" that fall from our lips, as leaves from a tree, is one Our Father, lived diligently, throughout the entire year. To pray this prayer is to live in the spirit of Jesus.

May God bless you.

Father Celestino, Pastor

Mensaje de la página 3...

Dios nunca abandona a su pueblo y su misericordia es abundante. Eso está en el núcleo de nuestra fe. Y así confiamos en el poder de la oración.

Lo difícil de la oración no está en las frases que empleamos, sino en el grado de compromiso que lleva orar. Es ponerse a disposición de Dios.

En conclusión: preferible a muchos padrenuestros que caen de nuestros labios como las hojas caen de un árbol, es un Padrenuestro vivido a lo largo de todo el año. Rezar esta oración es vivir en el espíritu de Jesús.

Que Dios los bendiga.

Padre Celestino, Párroco

Pope Francis Prayer Intentions

July 2022

We pray for the elderly, who represent the roots and memory of a people; may their experience and wisdom help young people to look towards the future with hope and responsibility.

Weekly Reflections

"When we feel strong doubt and fear, and it seems that we are sinking in the difficult moments of life, where everything becomes dark; we should not be ashamed to shout, like Peter: Lord save me! Call out to the heart of God, the heart of Jesus: Lord, save me! It is a beautiful prayer! We can repeat it many times: Lord, save me!"

Intenciones de oración del Papa Francisco

Julio 2022

Oramos por los ancianos, que representan las raíces y la memoria de un pueblo; que su experiencia y sabiduría ayuden a los jóvenes a mirar el futuro con esperanza y responsabilidad.

Reflexiones Semanales

"Cuando sentimos fuerte duda y miedo y parece que nos hundimos, en los momentos difíciles de la vida, donde todo se vuelve oscuro; no debemos avergonzarnos de gritar, como Pedro: ¡Señor, sálvame! Llama al corazón de Dios, al corazón de Jesús: ¡Señor, sálvame! ¡Es una oración hermosa! Lo podemos repetir muchas veces: ¡Señor, sálvame!"

STS. JOACHIM AND ANNE

July 26th

On July 26 the Roman Catholic Church commemorates the parents of the Virgin Mary, Saints Joachim and Anne. The couple's faith and perseverance brought them through the sorrow of childlessness, to the joy of conceiving and raising the immaculate and sinless woman who would give birth to Christ.

Some of the Church's traditional beliefs about Joachim, Anne and their daughter, are outline in the "Protoevangelium of James", which illustrates how Joachim was deeply grieved, along with his wife Anne, by their childlessness.

As it turned out, however, the couple were to be blessed even more abundantly than Abraham and Sarah. An angel revealed this to Anne when he appeared to her and prophesied that all generations would honor their future child: "The Lord has heard your prayer, and you shall conceive, and shall bring forth; and your seed shall be spoken of in all the world."

El 26 de julio, la Iglesia Católica Romana conmemora a los padres de la Virgen María, los santos Joaquín y Ana. La fe y la perseverancia de la pareja los llevó a través del dolor de la falta de hijos al gozo de concebir y criar a la mujer inmaculada y sin pecado que daría a luz a Cristo.

Algunas de las creencias tradicionales de la Iglesia sobre Joaquín, Ana y su hija se describen en el "Protoevangelio de Santiago", que ilustra cómo Joaquín estaba profundamente afligido, junto con su esposa Ana, por no tener hijos.

Sin embargo, resultó que la pareja sería bendecida aún más abundantemente que Abraham y Sara. Un ángel le reveló esto a Ana cuando se le apareció y profetizó que todas las generaciones honrarían a su futuro hijo: "El Señor ha oído tu oración, y concebirás y darás a luz; y tu simiente será hablada en todo el mundo."

When attending Mass, please be mindful...the priest should be the last person to enter the Church... and the first one to leave.

Cuando asista a Misa, por favor recuerde...el sacerdote es la última persona que entra a la Iglesia...y el primero en salir.

WORD OF LIFE: JULY 2022

“Married love differs from any other love in the world. By its nature, the love of husband and wife is so complete, so ordered to a lifetime of communion with God and each other, that it is open to creating a new human being they will love and care for together. ... That power to create a new life with God is at the heart of what spouses share with each other.”

““El amor matrimonial se distingue de cualquier otro amor en el mundo. Por su naturaleza, el amor del esposo y de la esposa es tan completo, tan ordenado a una vida completa de comunión con Dios y del uno con el otro, que está abierto para crear un nuevo ser humano, al que amarán y cuidarán juntos. ... Ese poder de crear una vida nueva con Dios es la esencia de lo que los esposos comparten”.

World Day
for Grandparents and the Elderly

July 24th

The second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly takes place on Sunday, July 24. Instituted by Pope Francis in 2021, this Church wide celebration takes place close to the liturgical memorial of Saints Anne and Joachim, the Grandparents of Jesus. The theme chosen by the Holy Father for this World Day is “In old age they will still bear fruit” (Psalm 92:15) which is a way of expressing the living of this age to the fullest. Grandchildren and young people are called upon to be present in the lives of older people, and older people and grandparents also have the mission of evangelization, proclamation, and prayer, and of encouraging young people in their Faith.
