Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 4, 2024

Job 7:1-4, 6-7; 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23; Mark 1:29-39
Psalm 147

Dear Families:

We saw last Sunday that Jesus is the prophet of God who tells us what the Father has entrusted Him to communicate to us. We also know that our union to Him through Baptism makes us participants in His prophetic role: to communicate to others what He has revealed to us.

Today, in the second reading, St. Paul underlines our obligation to comply with this office that he, as an apostle, had in a very special way: "Woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel! (1 Cor 9:16).

In today's Gospel, St. Mark teaches us a triple way of doing this through Jesus' examples: with works of charity, prayer and preaching.

After healing of the demoniac, on a Sabbath, in the synagogue of Capernaum, Jesus entered the house of Simon and Andrew. He was warned that Simon's mother-in-law lay sick with a fever and Jesus then cured her immediately.

"When it was evening, after sunset, they brought him all who were ill or possessed by demons. The whole town was gathered at the door. He cured many who were sick with various diseases, and he drove out many demons" (Mk 1:32-34).

It is evident that our prophetic mission, like that of Jesus', must be accompanied by works of charity, because the Gospel that we preach is the greatest work of God's charity for us and what we have to communicate is expressed in the commandment of love, "not in word or speech, but in deed and truth" (1Jn 3:18).

It is true: we must practice charity as proof of the validity of the Gospel that we profess, but we must give priority in our apostolic work to prayer. What we have in hand is God's business (undertaking), "...therefore, neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God, who causes the growth..."

As we already have charity and prayer, now, lastly, we need to say something about our obligation to preach. St. Paul tells us: "but how can they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach? Thus, faith comes from what is heard" (Romans 10:14-17).

So, here are the three pillars of today's message: Charity, prayer and preaching (speaking of Jesus to others: children, youth, the sick, couples and friends).

Peace and blessings to all.

 , Pastor

Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

4 de febrero del 2024

Job 7:1-4, 6-7; 1 Corintios 9:16-19, 22-23; Marcos 1:29-39
Salmo 147

Queridas familias:

Veíamos el domingo pasado que Jesús es el profeta de Dios que nos dice lo que el Padre le ha encargado comunicarnos. Y veíamos también que nuestra incorporación a El por el Bautismo nos hace partícipes de su función profética: comunicar a los demás lo que El nos ha revelado.

Hoy, San Pablo, en la segunda lectura subraya la obligación de cumplir con este oficio que a él, como apóstol, correspondía de manera especial: "¡Ay de mí, si no anuncio el Evangelio!" (1 Cor 9:16).

Y el pasaje de San Marcos de la tercera lectura de hoy nos enseña, con el ejemplo de Jesús, la triple forma de hacerlo: con obras de caridad, con la oración y con la predicación.

Después de la curación del endemoniado, un sábado en la sinagoga de Cafarnaún, Jesús se retiró a la casa de Simón y de Andrés. Al llegar le advirtieron que la suegra de Simón estaba en cama con fiebre y Jesús la curó inmediatamente. "Al anochecer, cuando se puso el sol, le llevaron todos los enfermos y poseídos. La población entera se agolpaba a la puerta. Curó a muchos enfermos de diversos males y expulsó muchos demonios" (Mc 1:32-34).

Es evidente que nuestra misión profética, como la de Jesús, ha de ir acompañada de obras de caridad; porque el evangelio que predicamos es la gran obra de caridad de Dios para con nosotros y lo que tenemos que comunicar se concreta en el mandamiento del amor "no de palabra ni de boca, sino con obras y de verdad" (1 Jn 3:18).

Es verdad: tenemos que practicar obras de caridad como prueba de la validez del evangelio que profesamos; pero tenemos que dar primacía en nuestro trabajo apostólico a la oración. Lo que tenemos entre manos es empresa de Dios en la que "ni el que planta es algo, ni el que riega, sino Dios hace crecer..." (1 Cor 3:7).

Así que tenemos ya: obras de caridad, oración y nos falta decir algo acerca de nuestra obligación de predicar. Nos dice San Pablo: "Pero, ¿cómo invocarán a aquel en quien no han creído? Y ¿cómo creerán en él de quien no han oído? Y ¿cómo oirán, si no se les predica? Porque la fe viene por el oído" (Ro 10:14-17).

Así pues, aquí están los tres pilares del mensaje de hoy: Caridad, oración y predicación (hablar de Jesús a los demás: niños, jóvenes, enfermos, parejas, amistades).

Paz y bendiciones para todos.

 , Párroco

Wedding Anniversary Mass

All couples celebrating 25, 30, 35, 40, 45, 50, or more than 50 years of marriage are invited by Bishop Frank J. Dewane to an Anniversary Mass in their honor. The Anniversary Masses will be celebrated in two locations:

11 a.m., Saturday, February 3 at St. Leo the Great Parish, 28290 Beaumont Road, Bonita Springs, and 11:00 a.m., Saturday, February 24 at Epiphany Cathedral, 350 Tampa Avenue West, Venice. Please contact your local parish office for reservations no later than one week before the event you choose to attend.

WARNING - Text/Email SCAM Alert - It has once again been brought to the attention of the Diocese of Venice that parishioners have received text/email messages from people pretending to be clergy – including Bishop Frank J. Dewane – or Parish/school staff, requesting donations in the form of gift cards and/or wire transfers. These messages, which are more frequent during the Christmas Season, often come from text/emails that look similar to official Diocesan/Parish/school numbers or accounts and often greet the recipient by name and have the priest's, Bishop's, or staff member's name in the "From" line and/or closing signature of the message. The SPAM often claims that the priest/Bishop/staff member is in need of gift cards or money to aid a sick child, relative, or parishioner. The message then asks the person purchase gift cards/money and then to text/email the redemption code and PIN number. It is Diocesan policy that neither the Bishop, nor priests or staff request donations in the form of gift cards, PayPal, MoneyGram, etc. Without this awareness, some have responded to the spoofed messages, with consequences, including loss of funds. There is an established process in place on how parishioners can make donations and participate in the life of the Diocese/Parish/school. If you receive such a SCAM text or email, please immediately contact the Diocesan/Parish/school directly!
